

MAR 30
WOMEN'S TENNIS

SHARE f t v ...

WOMEN'S TENNIS DROPS 5-2 DECISION TO SACRED HEART

FAIRFIELD, Conn. - The LIU Brooklyn women's tennis team suffered its first Northeast Conference loss of the season, falling to Sacred Heart on Wednesday, 5-2.

LIU began the match on a high note, taking the No. 1 doubles set. The freshman/senior duo of Anna Grigoryan and Caroline Koenigsfeldt defeated the Sacred Heart pair of Katie DeRienzo and Taylor Gurda, 6-3.

But the Blackbirds were unable to notch the double point, after falling in No. 2 and No. 3 spot.

Trying to earn the necessary amount of points in singles action, freshman Malin Leysen and junior Isabella Wagener earned a win in the No. 3 and No. 6 spot, respectively. Leysen took her set over Olivia Podsiebierski, 6-1, 6-1. While Wagener came out on top against Claudia Ruiz, 6-3, 6-4.

RELATED STORIES

WED, MAY 04
WOMEN'S TENNIS
Grigoryan Named NEC Women's Tennis Rookie of the Year

MON, MAY 02
BASEBALL
Rodney, West Named Athletes of the Year at Annual Athletics Banquet